Music Director, Brian Wright, introduces the season:

I'm extremely excited by the prospect of MSO's 2018-19 season. We've brilliant concertos for cello, trombone, violin and piano from Shostakovich, Gordon Jacob, Tchaikovsky and Schumann, played by some truly exceptional young solo artists, and a stellar soprano singing Wagner and Richard Strauss. Meanwhile, I know that our MSO players are greatly looking forward to performing fabulous works by Britten, Mussorgsky, Kodály, Shostakovich, Mahler, Dvořák, Brahms, Borodin and Rachmaninov. What a musical feast!

We're greatly encouraged by the increase in our audience over the past few seasons, particularly via on-line sales. Yes, we've had to increase our prices marginally for this coming season, but when you consider current London prices - £50 to £60 is not unusual for a top-price concert ticket - I think you'll agree that MSO continues to offer very good value.

Of course, a Season Ticket gives you the best deal, with "5 concerts for the price of 4" - and just half of that for new subscribers. Remember, too, that "18s and under" are FREE! So book early, help us to spread the word, and join us for five outstanding evenings of "community" music-making.

Michael Petrov
cello

Britten - Sinfonia da Requiem
Shostakovich - Cello Concerto No. 1
Mussorgsky/Ravel - Pictures at an Exhibition

A very welcome return to MSO for the Bulgarian cellist, Michael Petrov, playing Shostakovich's brilliant 1st Cello Concerto. To start we've Benjamin Britten's powerful and moving Sinfonia da Requiem, written at the outbreak of World War 2. To finish there's Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition in the flamboyant orchestration by Ravel. Originally for piano, and inspired by the drawings and watercolours of Viktor Hartmann, it ends with a spectacular musical depiction of the "Great Gate of Kiev".

Saturday
1 December 2018

Peter Moore
trombone

Kodály - Dances from Galánta
Gordon Jacob - Trombone Concerto
Mahler - Symphony No.1 "Titan"

Kodály's very ethnic and Hungarian-sounding Dances from Galánta set the scene for Gordon Jacob's highly entertaining Trombone Concerto. Ten years on from playing it to become the youngest BBC Young Musician, Peter Moore is now co-principal trombonist of the LSO. Mahler's vision changed the concept of the symphony. For him it was not just about music, but something "world encompassing". In his 1st Symphony there's vast power from a huge orchestra, contrasted with a song-like charm.

Saturday
2 February 2019

April Fredrick
soprano

Wagner - Prelude & Liebestod
from "Tristan & Isolde"
Richard Strauss - Four Last Songs
Shostakovich - Symphony No.5

We may all be emotional wrecks by the end of this concert! The acclaimed soprano, April Fredrick, sings Richard Strauss's highly charged, yet beautifully poised, Four Last Songs. She also joins MSO in our glorious opener in which Wagner encapsulates the essence of his opera Tristan and Isolde. The 5th Symphony was the make-or-break work for Shostakovich. Written in 1937 in the midst of Stalin's "Great Terror", its dual sense of optimism and tragedy both placated diehards of the Soviet regime and gave comfort to the oppressed.

Saturday
23 March 2019

Benjamin Baker violin

Dvořák - Symphonic Variations
Tchaikovsky - Violin Concerto
Brahms - Symphony No.2

A concert for musical connoisseurs, but also for everyone! New Zealand virtuoso, Benjamin Baker, returns to MSO with Tchaikovsky's ever-popular Violin Concerto. Dvořák's wonderfully crafted Symphonic Variations manage to be immediately appealing, yet curiously, rather neglected. Brahms's 2nd Symphony was an instant success, moving from musical light to darkness, and then back again, with a consummate mix of joy and profundity.

Saturday
18 May 2019

Tom Poster
piano

Borodin - Polovtsian Dances
from "Prince Igor"
Schumann - Piano Concerto
Rachmaninov - Symphonic Dances

A stunning last concert to our season. We're delighted to welcome back the critically acclaimed pianist, Tom Poster, playing Schumann's magnificent Piano Concerto. Elsewhere we're Russian all the way, with glorious romantic melodies in Borodin's Polovtsian Dances from his opera "Prince Igor", and Rachmaninov's final masterpiece, his Symphonic Dances. Both are extrovert works, full of musical invention and overflowing with the sounds of orchestral brilliance.

The Orchestra:

Under the direction of its acclaimed and popular conductor, Brian Wright, Maidstone Symphony Orchestra is regarded as one of the UK's finest "community" orchestras. It was formed in 1910 as Maidstone Orchestral Society, still the title of the concert promoting organisation. Today MSO is a superbly well-balanced mix of local professionals and ex-professionals, music teachers and excellent amateur players who come together regularly on a voluntary basis to perform concerts of a professional standard. This entails great commitment by the players, many of whom travel from all over Kent, and beyond, to attend MSO's weekly Thursday evening rehearsals.

The Audience:

Join the Club! Season Ticket holders become Members of Maidstone Orchestral Society, with full voting rights at the AGM. The MOS organising committee includes both player and audience members.

The Friends:

The Friends of Maidstone Orchestral Society are the orchestra's financial lifeline. Please join them for a modest annual subscription and pledge your extra support to MSO. For further information and a registration form contact the Friends' Secretary on 01233 811687 or email friends@mso.org.uk
